

Godolphin Australia Pty Ltd

(ACN: 093 921 021 ABN: 42 093 921 021)

(referred to as "Darley" for the purposes of these Terms and Conditions)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Godolphin Australia Pty Ltd also trades as Darley, or Darley stallions.

"Australian Turf Club" is also referred to as ATC, the Club.

"ATC Darley Princess Series", is also referred to as Darley Princess Series, Series, Princess Series.

"Winning breeder" is the person/s stated on the Australian Studbook as at the date of the race.

Mare, broodmare, breeding thoroughbred horse.

1. Winning horse's breeder of each leg of the Series receives a nomination to a Darley stallion as specified for that race:

- a. The breeder is the person/s or entity stated on the Australian Studbook as the breeder at the date of the race.
- b. The nomination must be used in the 2023 or 2024 southern hemisphere breeding season.
- c. Nomination prize is non-transferrable, must be used by winning breeder.

2. 2023 Series nominations to the Darley stallions are as follows:

- a. Nominations for each leg are selected by Darley prior to the Series commencing and may be changed at any time at Darley's discretion.
- b. Darley stallion nominations for 2023:

- G2 Silver Shadow Stakes on Saturday, 19 August is Paulele valued at $16,500 including GST.
- G2 Furious Stakes on Saturday, 2 September is Victor Ludorum valued at $16,500 including GST.
- G2 Tea Rose Stakes on Saturday, 16 September is Ghaiyyath valued at $27,500 including GST.
- G1 Flight Stakes on Saturday, 30 September is Bivouac valued at $66,000 including GST.

- c. If the above race is rescheduled for any reason, Darley at its discretion will determine whether the nomination prizes are still applicable.
- d. If the above races are cancelled under any circumstances, the nominations will be null and void.

3. In the event of a dead heat in any of the four legs of the Series.

- a. If a dead heat is declared as the official results by Racing NSW Stewards, it will be at the discretion of Darley:
 - (i) if both or no breeder wins the nomination prize.
 - (ii) whether each breeder receives a nomination at the full value, or if the value of the nomination is halved and/or an alternative stallion is selected for both breeders.

4. Darley stallion nominations for the 2023 Series:

- a. Should a stallion be unavailable or at Darley's discretion be made not available by Darley for any reason, Darley and the winning breeder will first discuss options for an exchange of the nomination to an alternate Darley stallion and failing agreement Darley at its discretion will nominate the stallion.
- b. Nominations are non-transferable.
- c. Nominations are non-transferable for monies, must be used for breeding purposes, and only the winning breeder's mare is to be covered.
- d. The broodmare must be owned or part-owned by the winning breeder as recorded in the Australian Studbook.
- e. The nomination will be carried out on Darley's standard terms and conditions.
- f. The nomination does not include a live foal guarantee or free return terms in the event that the mare fails to become pregnant or fails to deliver a live foal.

5. Winning multiple legs of the Series:

- a. The winning breeder per Term 1, section a, is entitled to receive and use the winning Darley nomination per Term 1, section a in respect to each leg of the Series.

6. Claiming the nomination prize:

- a. A member of the Darley stallions' nominations team will formally advise the winning breeder in writing of their nomination prize following each leg.
- b. The winning breeder is to provide, in writing, confirmation of the mare they would like to send to the Darley stallion of their winning leg no later than 1 August in the year of service.

7. Series trophies:

- a. The ATC will provide the winning owner/s of each leg with a trophy per the Club's terms and conditions. Any replicas of the trophy are to be at the cost of the winning connections and requested via the ATC <https://www.australianurfclub.com.au/memorabilia/>.